In the Spotlight ……..

The Oakland Gay Men's Chorus began in September of 1999 when Dick Kramer set up a booth at East Bay Pride (Oakland) and recruited members to create a gay men's chorus for the East Bay. The chorus made its first public appearance the following December at a meeting of The Lavender Seniors in San Leandro.

The Oakland Gay Men's Chorus solidified under the umbrella organization Pacific Center for Human Growth, and created a 3-concert season (Spring, East Bay Pride, Holiday). In January 2006, Oakland Gay Men's Chorus became independent and acquired its very own 501(c)(3) status. Over the next decade, they will intentionally evolve into an artistic pillar of our community, creating experiences that foster fellowship, belonging, and joy.

For more information, visit their website at oaklandgmc.org.

Want to see this phenomenal Holiday performance again? Below is their event schedule in the East Bay. Bring your relatives and friends!
