Private Prayer in the Chapel

St. Paul's is making the chapel available to our members for private prayer. We are partnering with thisspace, a nonprofit that helps churches manage space use, and you will make your reservations through their user-friendly website. To learn how to reserve your private time in the chapel, click here! If you don't have access to the internet, call the church office at (925) 934-2324.

Trinity Center Needs Bottled Water

Due to county pandemic guidelines, Trinity Center is forced to limit the number of members who can be inside at any given time. This means that some members must wait outside, often in hot weather, before they can enter. Trinity is requesting donations of bottled water to serve members while they wait. You can drop your donations at Trinity's front desk. Thank you in advance for your willingness to help.

The Apocalypse: Are We Living in One Now?

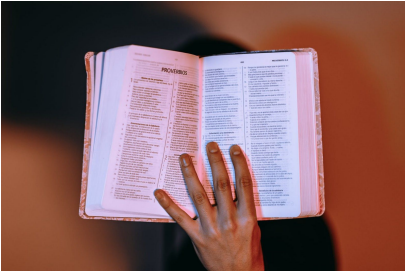

Wednesdays | August 5 - September 2 | 7:00 pm

Death, despair, and destruction. No, these aren't headlines from today's Chronicle, but reoccurring themes from the Bible. And yet, these days, it's easy to feel like we're living through an apocalypse right now! What does the Bible say on these topics, including one other theme, and the one most important to remember: "re-imagining?" Join Rev. Krista for an enlightening discussion about what the apocalypse really means, and leave each session filled with awareness, understanding, and hope. To join via Zoom, click here. To phone in, dial 669-900-6833, then enter Zoom meeting ID# 687 534 382.

Memories of Fr. Bob Reynolds

Fr. Bob's wife, Elizabeth, wrote to us saying, "I've been receiving many kind notes from people at St. Paul's, reminding us of many things we might have forgotten... some have sent pictures that I have never seen before and are priceless to us." Do you have a photo of Fr. Bob that you'd like to share with his family? You can send them to:
